International Council of Christian Churches

APPLICATION FOR CONSULTATIVE MEMBERSHIP

ICCC Constitution, Article III, Section 2: A local church not belonging to a denomination, or any congregation belonging to a denomination not affiliated with the World Council of Churches, or with any of its cooperating agencies, and which stands in the stream of historic Christianity may become a Consultative Member of this Council by approving and accepting the Preamble and Doctrinal Statement of the Constitution and applying for membership. Consultative Members shall have the privileges of representation and of discussion, and shall be entitled to one vote per member body.

Section 4: The Council, or its designated Committee, shall make careful investigation of the doctrinal standards and spiritual condition of every body applying for membership. Every applicant for membership in the Council shall furnish its confessional statements and also statistics of the number of its churches, of its clergy, and of its lay membership.

From Article IV, Section 1: Consultative and Associate Members shall be entitled to send as many representatives as desired, and shall have the privilege of participating in discussions, but only one certified member of each Consultative and Associate body shall have the right to vote.

WE APPROVE AND ACCEPT the Preamble and Doctrinal Statement of the Constitution and hereby apply for Consultative Membership.
